Bates House Block, 35 Merchants Row, RUTLAND, VT.

A MODEL HOUSE.

Buy your goods of reliable merchants who have been tried. The house with no reputation will resort to tricks of trade to secure custom, and will make the most out of you at the time, and then look out for fresh victims. In Troy pre eminently the house that has built up and sustained an increasing business from year to year, for more than half a century, is that of

G. V. S. QUACKENBUSH & CO., Dry Goods and Carpets,

COR. BROADWAY AND THIRD ST., TROY, N. Y.

This magnificent store, by far the largest in the line in the city, with its immense stock of desirable goods, stands to-day a monument of their enterprise. Occupying a corner and extending the entire length from street to alley, with its four stories and basement, it affords the best facilities of light for the display of goods and of comfort to examine them. On the main floor are departments for Silks, Laces, Velvets and Plushes, Dress Goods, Mourning Goods, Ribbons, Gloves, Hosiery, White Goods, Ladies' Underwear, Cloths, Cloakings, Boys' Clothing, Flannels, Linens, Cottons, Blankets, Prints and Notions. Up Stairs are the Carpet Rooms, the Curtain and Upholstery Rooms, the Cloak Parlors, and the Butterick Pattern Department.

All of these are fully stocked with the latest and best styles. Quackenbush's motto—"The Best is the Cheapest," has proved itself true a thousand times. Those who buy their goods are sure of the best of the kind, and their large business enables them to sell the best qualities as low as smaller stores can afford inferior goods.

As above stated, the business of this house has been constantly increasing. The founder, G. V. S. QUACKENBUSH, after more than forty years devotion to its advancement, died in 1872, and was succeeded by his son-in-law, S. H. LASELL, and his partner, W. H. SHERMAN, both of whom have been connected with the business for more than thirty years. The heads of many departments have also been long in their employ; and the business has been extended, and new features introduced, until to-day their facilities for offering the best selections at lowest prices are unexcelled. Visitors to Troy are cordially invited to call and look through the store, whether wishing to buy or not. Orders by mail receive careful attention.

THE RUTLAND STANDARD,

Published Every Friday

In Mutual Exchange Block,
COR. GROVE and WEST STREETS.
JAMES CARRUTHERS, Editor and Publisher.

THE STANDARD is a paper for the family and the fireside. It claims allegiance to no political party, but aims to seek out and commend the good in all. It is an exponent of whatever is pure, noble and just, is fearless and outspoken in its convictions, and its columns are always open to the people for legitimate purposes. We shall be pleased to receive individual expressions of opinion and criticism at all times, and will thankfully receive communications on any subject likely to prove of interest to cultured readers.

[ORGANIZED IN 1851.]

Deposits,	-	-	-	$1,557,000
Surplus,	-	-	-	65,000

Is receiving deposits on all business days in all sums from one to fifteen hundred dollars.

Interest will be allowed on all deposits from the first day of each month, and deposits made up to and including the fifth day of any month will draw interest from the first day of that month, if allowed to remain on deposit until the following January or July when the semi-annual interest is payable.

If the interest is not drawn out it becomes a part of the principal and draws interest, the same as any other deposit made on the first of January or July.

Deposits can be made by draft, post-office order or by express, and deposit books returned to the depositors.

Taxes on all deposits not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars are paid by the bank.

Rutland, Vermont.

91st Year. The Oldest, Largest and Best Vermont Newspaper.

THE DAILY HERALD.

Is published every morning (Sundays excepted) and contains full Associated Press telegraphic reports up to the time of going to press, with complete local and editorial departments, and aims to be a finished newspaper in all respects, giving a careful epitome of the world's doings each day. It is a paper suited to the wants of a merchant, manufacturer, and all business men; is printed in season for the early morning trains out of Rutland, and can be laid on the breakfast table of subscribers near the line of a railroad at any point within a radius of 40 miles of Rutland. Subscription price, $6.00 a year.

THE WEEKLY HERALD.

a large quarto sheet of 64 columns, is published every Thursday morning, and is the largest weekly in Vermont. It is made up of selected matter from the daily, contains a full summary of the home and foreign news of the week, stock and dairy market reports, and has a complete agricultural department. It is a paper exactly suited to the wants of the farmer and all residents of the smaller towns away from the line of railway communication, being specially designed for the households of the rural population, and a necessity to all persons of that class in Southwestern Vermont. Subscription price, $1.50 a year.

The high character which the HERALD has always held as a political, news and family journal, during the ninety years of its existence will be fully and ably maintained during the coming year. The two functions of a newspaper—a vehicle of news and an organ of public opinion—will be constantly kept by the HERALD at the highest standard. It will continue to be the most enterprising Vermont journal, furnishing its readers all legitimate news promptly, and giving more reading matter than any other paper in the State. It will comment on all occurrences that seem to demand notice with its usual ability, fairness and candor. In short the HERALD will continue to be the largest, strongest, most influential, best, and (considering size and quality) cheapest newspaper in Vermont, keeping abreast of the times in all the departments of a complete family journal.

FACTS FOR ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers will advance their own interests by a thoughtful perusal of the following facts; The HERALD presents unequalled attractions as an advertising medium to merchants, manufacturers and all business men who wish to get the fullest returns for their money. No paper in Vermont approaches it in value as a medium through which to reach the best class of consumers, and its prices, based on circulation, are greatly below the rates of any other paper in the State.

The actual circulation of the DAILY HERALD almost equals the combined circulation of all the other Vermont dailies, while its advertising rates are about one-third as much. The Daily Herald gives much greater value for the money than any other Vermont daily.

The WEEKLY HERALD has a larger circulation than any other Vermont weekly with one exception, and it is the very best advertising medium in the State for these reasons: Its large circulation; its intelligent readers; its ability; the fact that it has constantly visited the families of nearly all its readers for more than half a century gives an influence to all that appears in its columns possessed by no paper of fugitive growth or feeble existence. The Weekly Herald gives much greater value for the money than any other Vermont weekly.

The skillful advertiser—the man who understands his business; the man who puts his money where it will “do the most good”—never fails to take into consideration the CHARACTER of a paper and the class of persons who read it, for he knows that the average of purchases made by the settled, responsible classes—those who are able to buy the paper they read and pay for it in advance—is out of all proportion greater than the average of purchases made by the transient, wholly irresponsible class reached by a certain kind of ephemeral, irresponsible publications—alleged newspapers. We invite advertisers to investigate the above facts.
